The Standard.

There used to be an idea current that The Standard was heavy, overweighted with its own dignity. That impression has been removed by the judicious modernising of The Standard.

Nowadays, The Standard tells all the news interestingly; it covers every field of human activity; the lighter side of life is treated in a bright attractive manner, while the more serious affairs of national life and internation[illegible] roundness of view.

PREFACE.

FOLLOWING the precedent of former years, the Thirty-fourth Annual Issue of WILLING'S PRESS GUIDE has been carefully revised, no expense being spared in order to support its reputation as the handiest and readiest for reference, and for the information usually required in regard to the Press of the World the most complete and reliable work of its class.

For much of the information the thanks of the Proprietors are due to the Publishers who have favoured them by replying to their request for particulars, the few who have failed in this respect being distinguished in the alphabetical arrangement by an asterisk (*).

In the newspapers are included only such as appear under distinct titles. Many of these are simply reprints of other papers with the heading alone changed, while others have some variation which entitles them to be called localised editions.

The number of periodicals might be greatly increased by adding, as is commonly done, a large number of strictly American magazines and many hundred parish magazines, the latter mostly some well-known monthly localised by the addition of a cover with parochial notices and local advertisements.

It is perhaps necessary to state that throughout the Guide the prefix "bi" signifies "two," not "twice;" consequently, a "bi-monthly" is published every two months, a "bi-weekly" every two weeks.

Suggestions, corrections, and information calculated to further improve the scope of this work will be gratefully received, and the Publishers respectfully request that any change in the title, day of issue, price, publisher, or office of any of the publications herein may be notified to them, together with the titles of any that may be discontinued during the year. Particulars and a copy of anything new that may appear in the course of the year should be directed to "The Editor," in order to secure insertion in the next edition.

The thanks of the Proprietors are returned to numerous appreciative friends and to the newspaper proprietors who have kindly assisted to produce a trustworthy Guide to the Press.

Six Editions are Published Daily.

THE GLOBE consistently advocates sound constitutional doctrine, and gives an independent support to the Unionist party. Great energy is manifested to obtain the latest news, and it has always the character of receiving the earliest official intelligence.

Its circulation is very large, and rapidly increasing. In London it is largely sold at all bookstalls, at the principal newsagents, and in the streets. The subscription list is very considerable; and the Paper can also be had from newsagents in the principal towns, and at all important railway stations in the provinces. It is also much read in clubs, hotels, and reading-rooms throughout the United Kingdom and Continental cities.

THE GLOBE, which, from the reliability and excellence of its news and reports—Parliamentary, law, and general—its latest telegrams, money market intelligence, &c., has the reputation of being the LEADING as well as the OLDEST EVENING PAPER, has also

A Complete Sporting Service.

The SPECIAL EDITION, published at 6.30 p.m., gives the full results of all events, jockeys' weights, next day's programmes, and starting prices of all horses running, and a SPECIAL DESCRIPTION OF EACH RACE at all race-meetings. The latest betting on the course, the entries, weights, and acceptances, programmes, and scratchings are also carefully chronicled. Its original matter, in addition to light reading under "Notes of the Day," includes letters from the chief Continental cities; and a special feature is the "Turnover," appearing on the front page, written on a social topic by writers who rank among the foremost littérateurs of the day.

READ BY

MEN OF SUBSTANCE

AND POSITION.

POLITICS

There is always a great demand for the "Westminster Gazette" on the part of Members of Parliament. No other newspaper is so much sought after in the Reading Room of the House of Commons.

CULTURE

The hold which the "Westminster Gazette' has on our Universities is shown by its coming second in number of copies on the daily newspaper list of the Oxford Union Society.

FINANCE

It occupies the same position on the list of newspapers officially subscribed to by the Stock Exchange.

GENERAL

There is abundant evidence to be seen every day of the popularity of the "Westminster Gazette" with the better class public. No feature of the London evening Press is better known and appreciated than the "Westminster" Cartoons of Sir F. Carruthers Gould ("F.C.G.")

ADVERTISING

The "Westminster Gazette" is the most powerful medium of publicity in the penny evening Press. It is regularly entrusted with a larger amount of the best kind of advertising than any other paper of its class, and it may be inferred from the acumen of modern advertisers that this is owing to real and sustained merit.

NOTES TO PRECEDING PAGE.

(1) Copies are in the British Museum. Twenty-one numbers issued at Oxford were "Re-printed at London for the use of some Merchants and Gentlemen, who desired them." "Numb. 1" is without date, the first paragraph being headed "Oxon, Nov. 7"—the cause of an erroneous date often given for the first issue: a later paragraph is dated Nov. 14. The second issue is without number, but headed "From Thursday, November 16, to Monday, November 20, 1665," showing that the first issue might have been from the earliest date (Guernsey, Oct. 30) to November 16, 1665. One earlier date in the first number is Nov. 4, 1664, the last figure perhaps an error in reprinting. Owing to difference of Style, paragraphs of foreign news dated in advance of the day of publication are to be met with in later issues. One interruption to the asserted regularity of the paper's appearance was caused by the Fire of London, when the printer—"Tho. Newcomb over against Baynards Castle in Thames Street"—must have been burnt out, and No. 85 did duty for a week, being dated "From Monday, September 3, to Monday, September 10, 1666."

(2) 1690 is the date often given. The first volume is in the British Museum, Nos. 1 to 3 being too much mutilated for the date to be correctly ascertained, but the fourth number is for Friday, March 10, to Monday, March 13, 1699 (N.S. 1700).

(3) The date commonly given is 1711, but as many copies of an earlier date are in the British Museum, it is assumed from No. 339, for July, 1708, that publication commenced in 1705.

(4) Green's History of Worcester (1796) states that it is conjectured a public paper was established in Worcester about 1690. That date is consequently claimed for this paper; but Green further adds that, whatever may have been printed previous to 1709, the Worcester Postman, in June of that year, assumed a regular and orderly appearance in a small folio of six pages, the printer being Stephen Bryan. The earliest copy known to be in existence of the Worcester Postman is said to consist of two pages, post folio, with a date in 1710. Volumes for 1712-14 were exhibited at the Caxton Celebration in 1877. In 1722 the paper had become the Worcester Post or Western Journal, and later the Weekly Worcester Journal, under which title a copy for Friday, March 3, to Friday, March 10, 1728-27, is in the British Museum, its number being 924, agreeing with the date July 1, 1709, for the first issue. In 1729 the paper had become the Worcester Journal, and on June 23, 1748, it announced the death of "Stephen Bryan, who near forty years was printer of this paper." About three months before his death Mr. Bryan assigned his business to Mr. Hervey Berrow, whose name was added to the title on Oct. 11, 1753.

(5) Stated to be unnumbered till 1725, when No. 1 was added to the issue for May 1.

(6) For the first eighteen years the numbers were divided into half-yearly volumes. Perhaps the earliest copy in existence is for Jan. 6, 1715-6, vol. vii. One for Nov. 7, 1717, vol. x., was exhibited at the Caxton Celebration, and the earliest copy in the British Museum is vol. xi., No. 21, for Thurs., May 22, 1718—twelve quarto pages, 8¼ inches by 6. A number for 1719, vol. xiv., is said to be in the Museum of the Philosophical Society of Leicester; one is spoken of for 1723, vol. xxi.; and the British Museum contains vols. xxxi. and xxxii., for 1728, now an octavo of eight pages, 9 inches by 5½. The date of establishment of the present paper is probably 1731, as a copy of the Lincoln, Rutland, and Stamford Mercury, for Jan. 9, 1789, says "This paper for upwards of Fifty-seven years has been and continues to be circulated every Friday morning," &c., proving that the Stamford Mercury was not looked upon as the original of the present paper. The claim was first made on July 7, 1826, by a new proprietor, when he counted the 36 half-yearly volumes as so many years, and thus added 18 years to the age of the paper.

(7) Much of the pedigree of this paper and its collaterals is shown in the following list of Titular Changes.

(8) 1713 is claimed as the date of establishment. A copy in the British Museum of the British Chronicle for March 28, 1711, is No. 34, vol. i.

(9) The date is assumed from an obituary notice of Mr. Wm. Chase in the paper for June 2, 1744, wherein he is said to have "printed the Norwich Mercury for about 30 years." The proprietors on Jan. 26, 1884, issued a facsimile of the paper of Jan. 21-8, 1727, and they have in their possession "an odd copy or two for 1721."

(10) No. 530 is dated March 22, 1722 (published twice a week), and No. 1 of the Kentish Gazette is dated April 30 to May 4, 1768. On the following 23rd of July the Kentish Post was incorporated, and the paper appeared as the Kentish Gazette and Canterbury Chronicle, beginning again as No. 1.

(11) Vol. ii., 1719-20, was in the Caxton Exhibition. The paper was discontinued from 1755 to 1767, a new numbering then being adopted.

(12) The first number was published on May 2, 1720. A copy of the first volume is in the Northampton Free Reference Library.

(13) 1720 has been given. No. 255 is dated Feb. 21, 1727.

(14) A copy of the first number, for July 8, 1723, is in the Bodleian Library, and of this a facsimile was issued as a supplement to the paper on July 8, 1882.

(15) The York Courant was incorporated with the York Herald, which started on Jan. 2, 1790.

(16) 1720 is frequently given. A copy for July 10, 1739, is No. 76, vol. ii.; and one for March 12, 1744, is No. 372, vol. ix. A copy of the Salisbury and Winchester Journal for Sept. 7, 1829, is 5639, following which the number is 56310, and so onwards!

(17) 1719 and 1721 are given. A copy for 1772 is No. 1858.

(18) 1736 is commonly given. The proprietor (1884) says 1737.

(19) 1748 is also given. A copy for Dec. 8, 1804, is No. 2198; pointing to a still later date.

(20) 1745 and 1746 have been given.

(21) Complete file from No. 1.

(22) A volume of the Oxford Journal for 1753 was in the Caxton Exhibition. Jackson's Oxford Journal for April 3, 1762, is No. 466.

(23) A copy of the Leeds Intelligencer for Jan. 3, 1883, says 1751, but in 1866 the date claimed is 1754.

(24) A copy of the Bath Advertiser for March 8, 1760, is No. 230, and one of the Bath Chronicle for May 7, 1761, is No. 30.

(25) The date commonly given is 1759. No. 1, in the British Museum, is dated Jan. 12, 1760.

(26) This had only reached No. 1319, vol. xxvi., on May 23, 1795.

(27) An earlier date, under a different name, is sometimes given to this paper, but with this title a copy of No. 17, for April 18-21, 1761, is in the British Museum.

(28) 1755 has been given, but a copy for Sept. 10, 1763, is No. 1, and one for March 14, 1776, is No. 88, vol. xiii.—"total number 1639."

(29) 1730 is frequently given.

(30) A copy for Nov. 23, 1775, is No. 761, vol. viii., and the title is preceded by "John Ferrar."

(31) This paper expired in 1844, its death being announced in its last number on the 1st of February. Two months later another proprietor started The Chronicle. On Feb. 7, 1849, "Waterford" was added by the proprietor to the headings of the inner pages, and a few weeks later it was added to the first page.

(32) This is said to be an error, being the date of the amalgamation of the Kentish Post and Kentish Gazette (see note 10). However, a copy of the Kentish Chronicle for April 28, 1795, is No. 1592.

(33) 1782 and 1789 have been given. The paper was not numbered till June 21, 1792, when it was begun with No. 1024.

(34) A volume for 1772 was in the Caxton Exhibition.

(35) A copy for April 13, 1774, is No. 2 (i.e., for that year). The numbers were reissued as a pocket volume at the end of each year as Weatherby's Racing Book.

(36) 1773 is sometimes given. No. 1 is in the British Museum, and dated May 2, 1775.

(37) 1778 is also given.

(38) 1777 and 1779 have been given.

(39) The first number, in the British Museum, speaks of itself as the Universal Register, while its heading is "The Daily Universal Register, Printed Logographically. By His Majesty's Patent. Numb. 1, Saturday, January 1, 1785. Price Two-pence Half-penny." The printer is James Fleming. The first number of The Times is now exhibited in the British Museum.

(40) This had only reached No. 996, vol. xx., on Jan. 6, 1830.

(41) A Bristol Weekly Mercury had an existence much earlier in the century. A copy for Dec. 1, 1716, is No. 61.

(42) 1788 is also given.

(43) No. 6 of The Observer, for Jan. 8, 1792, is in the British Museum.

(44) In 1862 this paper was incorporated with the Bath Express, afterwards the Bath Herald.

(45) No. 2 of the Morning Advertiser, dated Feb. 10, 1794, is in the British Museum; also facsimile of No. 1.

TITULAR CHANGES AND AMALGAMATIONS.

The following list, which deals only with publications which have not completely passed out of existence, will afford considerable help in tracing the history of some of the oldest newspapers and periodicals, and greatly assist in a search for many which are otherwise difficult to find owing to some trifling alteration in the leading title.

The date of issue or of change, where ascertained, follows the title; a second title printed in italic indicates that the list must be again entered with that title until the new-found one is printed in Roman character, when, if further information is required, reference should be made to the publication in the Alphabetical List, page 1.

When a publication has received a new title, the contraction bec. signifies "became"; and when a title has been incorporated, the contraction inc. stands for "incorporated with," "amalgamated with," or "merged into."

A New Success.

THE immediate and astonishing great success of T.P.'s Weekly in 1903 has been duplicated in the welcome given to the new Social Weekly just launched under the editorship of T. P. O'CONNOR. No less than 600,000 copies of the first number were printed, an almost unprecedented total for the first issue of any weekly journal.

Nos. 1 and 2 were SOLD OUT, and this fact alone is sufficient evidence of the immediate success which P. T. O. has achieved, and also as to its ability to profitably serve the advertisers' purpose. As for the class of reader, it follows that, the journal being edited by "T. P.," it is one which will enjoy, almost exclusively, a home circulation.

Advertisers and agents are asked to note that the rates now in force (from £25 to £40 per page) are almost certain to be increased at an early date. Series orders placed now will be carried out at the present prices.

An Old Success.

T. P.'s Weekly

Is an old favourite with advertisers, and every year improves its position as an advertising medium. Whereas P. T. O. is a popular Social Weekly, T. P.'s Weekly is a Literary Weekly appealing to a class of reader which has always shown itself responsive to the advertiser's appeal. It will continue to be edited by T. P. O'CONNOR, in itself a fact which guarantees its future position.

Advertisers can therefore see that the enterprise and judgment which made T. P.'s Weekly so great a success are still at work on its behalf. All shrewd buyers of space are regular patrons of the advertising columns of T. P.'s Weekly.

LANCASHIRE is the most prosperous County in England, and shows better results to advertisers than any other county.

BOLTON is the third town in Lancashire in point of population, wealth and influence. Within five miles of Bolton Town Hall 250,000 people live. Around this great centre of population are grouped large and growing communities, such as Darwen and district, with a population of 110,000 on the north; Farnworth and district with 40,000 on the east; Leigh and Tyldesley and district, with 60,000 on the south and south-east; Wigan and Chorley, 70,000 on the west; and Pendlebury and Swinton and district, 30,000 on the east. The area thus indicated, of which Bolton is the centre, constitutes one of the busiest, most active, successful, and influential commercial, manufacturing and industrial sections of the County of Lancashire, and in the homes of these people the

"GRIEVANCES FROM IRELAND."

AT the request of an influential body of Irishmen, who view with anxiety the present position of Protestants and Loyalists in the Sister Isle, the Imperial Protestant Federation has issued a new monthly magazine, entitled "GRIEVANCES FROM IRELAND." The magazine deals exclusively with the political events which are transpiring in Ireland through the machinations of the Catholic Association, the United Irish League, and other similar organisations, which are actively promoting the boycotting and persecuting policy of the Roman Catholic Church. A copy of "GRIEVANCES FROM IRELAND" is regularly sent every month to each member of the House of Lords and the House of Commons, as well as to the Editors of every daily and the principal weekly secular and religious newspapers in the Empire. "GRIEVANCES FROM IRELAND" appears as the advocate of religious liberty for Irish Protestants and Loyalists in the exercise of their just rights as subjects of a Protestant King and a Protestant Constitution, and with the determination to make their grievances and wrongs fully known to the British public. "GRIEVANCES FROM IRELAND" will not be a party political magazine, but will deal with questions which raise it far above the turmoil of ordinary party strife; and it will resolutely defend the interests of all classes of loyal Protestant Irishmen. The cost of carrying out this highly important enterprise will necessarily be very heavy, and it is therefore earnestly hoped that every reader of WILLING'S PRESS GUIDE will order copies of "GRIEVANCES FROM IRELAND," and generously contribute to the fund for its production and circulation.

"GRIEVANCES FROM IRELAND" consists of 56 pages, printed in the finest possible style, and is published at the remarkably low price of 1d.; post free, 2d. Annual subscription, post free, 2s.

Please mention WILLING'S PRESS GUIDE when writing.
